(XLVIth YEAR.) THE (No. 2298.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1791.

MADRID, October 18.

ADVICES have been received here, since those of the 14th instant, containing further particulars of the terrible calamities produced by the earthquake which happened at Oran on the night of the 8th instant. By these it appears that twenty successive shocks were felt at short intervals. The whole city is destroyed, and a great part of the inhabitants and of the garrison are buried under the ruins. Almost all the forts which covered that place and its district are open or destroyed, so as not to be in a situation to resist an attack. The interior part of the garrison is in ruins in many places, and the considerable number of people who were wounded and not actually killed by this disaster remained without assistance.

WARSAW, October 30.

We have received accounts through various channels, that the Russian army has taken Ismailo, and pushed on towards Kilia, which place they had besieged. The particulars of the taking of Ismailo are not yet known, but it is supposed the place was taken by storm. We are assured that the Turkish army, under the grand vizier, is assembling at Kilia, and thus, probably, the fate of that place may be determined by a pitched battle.

BRUSSELS, November 2.

On Friday morning last, at the hour of eleven o'clock, the town of Namur suffered a melancholy shock, by the blowing up of the powder-magazine; it is said that from 300 to 500 persons perished: a number of houses, and part of the barracks also suffered, according to the account which the corporation of Namur gave congress. They impute this sad disaster to accident; however, the general opinion is, that it was owing to the force of imperial gold.

The loss sustained on the above occasion is computed at 80,000 florins; 400 of the French guards and their officers are arrived at the camp of Bovignie, as volunteers under major-general Kochler.

An express is this moment arrived at head-quarters, of an engagement having taken place between the Austrians and the Patriots, near Bovignie, in which the latter were victorious.

PARIS, November 10.

The bold and manly manner in which M. D'Orleans has defended himself, has conciliated the friendship of many, while it has shaken the confidence of his accusers; and it is pretty generally thought here, that he will procure his acquittal by recrimination.

The following is a faithful translation of a letter from the KING, to M. DE LA FAYETTE.

"SIR,

"In consequence of what you told me yesterday, I give you notice that I mean to take for my guards the grenadiers and the soldiers of the centre.

Signed, LOUIS."

Circular letter from the grenadiers of the Oratoire, to the other companies of the centre, dated November 7, 1790.

"Dear Comrades,

"We are all eager to know in what manner we are to be disposed of. While we were endeavouring to receive information on this subject, while we were, perhaps, on the point of taking a false step, owing to the persuasions of men who had found the means of winning our confidence, our general was exerting himself in favour of his soldiers, whom he styles, his comrades, his children.

"He himself informed us yesterday, that he had pleaded our cause before the king, and that his majesty had, in consequence, written him a letter with his own hand, assuring him, that he intended to form his guards from among the regular troops.

"This letter we have all seen, and heard it read.

"Having already so many reasons for placing the most implicit confidence in our general, this proof of his reward and friendship for us is an additional motive of giving ourselves wholly up to his directions, and for eradicating every kind of suspicion from our breast.

"Let us, therefore, dear comrades! rely implicity on his care and attention to our interests, and gratefully acknowledge his kindness towards us.

"We are, &c."

LONDON, October 24.

Lately dined together, at a friends house near Oldham, one husband, one wife, one mother, one grandfather, one grand-mother, ——— one uncle, one niece, one father in-law, one step-father, two brothers, two sons, one grand-son, and step-son—and only four persons.

Lately died near Stratford upon Avon, one Samuel Davies, a famous cribbage player. He selected four of the best players from the circle of his friends, as pall-bearers, to whom he left a beautiful ivory cribbage-board, to be played for on their return from the grave.

Nov. 4. That the king of Sweden is the most eloquent of the crowned heads of Europe, as well as the most adroit politician, at least with regard to managing his own subjects, is universally allowed. Of this, the following is a specimen, taken from the Stockholm Gazette of the 8th instant.

"The king yesterday reviewed the militia of the Stockholm Bourgeoisie, and after the review was over gave them the following grateful testimony of his regard, which he afterwards dispersed, written with his own hand.

"At the review of the militia of the citizens of Stockholm, we have found the officers and soldiers well exercised, and their equipages in good condition, bright, and in good taste. No one has asked leave to retire; all were joyous and content.—Union and confidence reigned between the officers and soldiers, and we recollect with joy the time in which the citizens of Stockholm have, during the space of two years, taken upon them the defence of the capital, and for which we have twice returned them our thanks.

"It is now that, under the divine blessing, we have regained for our country an existence on its own bottom; we have defended our frontiers, a thing which is frequently of more importance than the extending them: we have re-established the glory of the Swedish arms, and the safety of our flag. Under the favour of that repose which peace has procured, she shall sedulously promote our commerce and our manufactures, and the citizens may be sure of our favour and good will.

"Given at the place of review, the 30th of September, 1790.
"GUSTAVE."

The Indian chiefs, lately arrived in town, are six in number. They have been indiscriminately styled Cherokees, but three of them only are of that nation, and three are Creek Indians. They are all handsome men, not exceeding in age 25 or 26. These six chiefs have 20,000 warriors ready to take the field, and have the strongest wish to act in conjunction with the English. They travelled 3000 miles before they reached Halifax, and were near twelve months in performing the journey. From Halifax they went in an English frigate to Quebec to lord Dorchester, by whom they were sent over to England, to concert their plans in person with the ministry.

A letter from Madrid, dated the 11th of October, says, that the emperor of Morocco is exceedingly inveterate against the Spaniards, and particularly on account of the flight of the Spanish consul, who took away with him several of his countrymen and four Moors, on board of the frigate which had been ordered to convey them to the Barbary coast.

The emperor, irritated at such a conduct, which he says is the height of perfidy, ordered the heads of his own father-in-law, of one of his ministers, and of the Pacha of Tangiers to be struck off, because they were supposed to be attached to the Spaniards, and because it was in their power to prevent the Spanish consul's escape.

He then sent for all the Spaniards who were at Mequinex, at Tangiers, &c. to make slaves of them, till restitution of all his losses be made.

Nov. 6. Further advices have been received, by the way of Madrid, of the damages sustained by the late earthquake at Oran, by which it appears, that the whole of that city is destroyed, and every soul in the garrison were buried in the ruins. Twenty different shocks were perceptibly felt; and there was no part of that devoted place, wherein the loss of lives, more or less, was not severely felt.

Nov. 8. Fresh tumults have broken out in the province of Languedoc in France. The people of Montauban instigated by the priests, attacked the patrol of Touraine regiment. They fired on the soldiers, but luckily without effect. Both the above regiments, and that of royal Boulogne, were greatly molested by some of the inhabitants from the tops of their houses.

Orders were sent off early on Thursday morning, express to Falmouth, to stop the sailing of the packet boats for America and the West-India islands, till the government dispatches which are to be conveyed by them, should arrive; and Friday morning an express messenger was sent off to Falmouth with dispatches for the earl of Effingham, at Jamaica, the naval commanding officers in the West-Indies, America, &c. with which the packets are to proceed directly.

A commercial treaty with Spain was in agitation before the late disputes took place. Should the two courts become amicable, that may now be expected to be brought to a conclusion. Mr. Eden's abilities were employed on it some years ago.

Nov. 10. We have reason to believe that a considerable force is to be sent to the East-Indies, as now that we are relieved from other enemies, it is the intention of government finally to crush Tippoo.

Near 4000 of our most able seamen are now employed in the southern whale-fishery. The vast increase of commerce which must be the result of the concessions of the Spanish cabinet, will make our trade to those seas an inexhaustible nursery for seamen.

A ship from North-America to Bremen, with tobacco, is lost on the coast of Holland.

The convention for an armistice between the Austrians and the Turks agreed upon by the prince of Cobourg on one part, and the grand vizier on the other, consists of six articles.

Hostilities were to cease on the 19th of September on one part, and on the 21st of the same month on the other, both by land and on the rivers. Should any act of hostility take place afterwards, the aggressors shall make full satisfaction.

The armistice shall last nine months, that is to the end of May, 1791.

In the interim, the armies of the two nations shall separate. The Austrian troops shall not enter on the territories of the Turks, nor shall the grand vizier leave any troops on this side the Danube, except a sufficient garrison for the forts which they occupy. Those garrisons shall not come out on the districts belonging to the Austrians.

Each party shall enjoy the free navigation of the rivers wherever they occupy forts on the banks, just as in the time of peace.

The grand vizier has passed the Danube with a view to attack the Russians in Bessarabia, or wherever he may meet them.

Nov. 30. We hear that Mr. Elliot, father-in-law to admiral Digby, is to be the ambassador to America, with a salary of 3000l. a year.

The Thames and Leopard frigates, commanded by captains Trubridge and Blankett, have sailed from Portsmouth, for the Pacific ocean; they are to join company with the Pandora at Madeira, and proceed from thence round Cape Horn to Nootka Sound, to see proper indemnification made to the British subjects for the injuries they received there from the Spanish government. It is said they have orders to erect a fortress at Nootka, and to raise those erected by the Spaniards, and to take possession, in the name of the king of Great-Britain, of that immense tract of country, situated to the northward of Santa Fee.

By the last accounts from Nootka, the Spanish forces consisted of about 300 men, exclusive of the crews of a 40 gun ship and a small sloop of war, stationed there for the protection of their trade; but, it is said, the court of Madrid, during the late disturbance, ordered two frigates into the South Seas from Algesiras, and it is thought they also received directions to proceed to Nootka; they have a fort, mounting 21 guns, and have lately erected a strong redoubt, with other detached works.

Captain Trubridge has, we understand, received orders to explore the country both on the north and south of the Straits of Juan de Fuca, and, if possible, an extensive sea, lately discovered stretching to the eastward. Should this sea (as there is at least a probability) have any communication with the Atlantic ocean, by means of Wager Straits, or Nelson's river, and Hudson's Bay, a tedious and dangerous voyage round Cape Horn, or through the Straits of Magellan, would in future be avoided.

BASSETERRE, (St. Kitts) December 13.

A very daring act of piracy was committed on board the sloop Nancy, Edward Philips, commander, belonging to Mr. Jeremiah Neale, of Nevis. Four negroes belonging to the vessel, having been guilty of a robbery, which was discovered, and dreading the punishment they deserved, came to the diabolical resolution of murdering the captain, and running away with the vessel: they accordingly on Monday evening last, when the sloop was on its passage from Nevis to St. Eustatius, rose upon the captain and passengers, and having overpowered them, beat them in a very cruel manner, they afterwards hoisted out the boat, and committing them to the waves, bore away. It is to be hoped that wherever they may seek for refuge, they may be apprehended, delivered up to justice, and brought to condign punishment.

PITTSBURG, January 1.

The arrival of Mr. Robins at this place from Sandusky, and the accounts brought by him of the disposition of the Indians is rather unfavourable. It appears that they are determined early in the spring to turn out for war, and commit depredations on the frontiers; that they are greatly elevated with the issue of the late campaign, and (when speaking of it) say they are more than men. It may be necessary for the inhabitants on the frontiers to keep a watchful eye, although there may be no great danger, as a report of this kind never loses by frequent repeating; and we flatter ourselves their attention will be called to a more distant quarter, in order to protect themselves.

The navigation of the Ohio has been closed this sometime, so that all communication, by that channel, is for the present stopped between this country and Kentucky.

PHILADELPHIA, January 18.

"Gallispolis, or French-town, on the Scioto, November 29, 1790.

"This will be handed you by Mr. ———, who is sent by our fellow-citizens, as a deputy to the Scioto company, at New-York, in order to obtain from them leave to remove the seat of our new city twenty miles below the place where it is now fixed, which is too hilly and not at all suitable for a town. We have been informed by our huntsmen, that a few miles lower down there is a convenient spot of level ground in every respect proper for the seat of our metropolis. We are all charmed with this country;—the lands are good.

"We are now fully convinced that the stories of Indians and ferocious animals with which persons endeavoured to alarm us on our way hither, are entirely without foundation. We wander about the woods at a distance from our habitations without danger. General St. Clair, who passed this way a few days ago, and all those who have had an opportunity of making themselves acquainted with the savages in these parts, assure us that their conduct towards the French is particularly friendly. Provisions and game are plenty."

BALTIMORE, January 21.

From a London news-paper, of November 13.

CONVENTION, between his BRITANNIC MAJESTY and the KING of SPAIN, signed at the Escurial, October 28, 1790.

THEIR Britannic and catholic majesties, being desirous of terminating, by a speedy and solid agreement, the differences which have lately arisen between the two crowns, have judged that the best way of attaining this salutary object would be that of an amicable arrangement, which, setting aside all retrospective discussion of the rights and pretensions of the two parties, should fix their respective situation, for the future, on a basis conformable to their true interests, as well as to the mutual desire with which their said majesties are animated, of establishing with each other, in every thing, and in all places, the most perfect friendship, harmony, and good correspondence. In this view, they have named and constituted, for their plenipotentiaries, to wit: on the part of his Britannic majesty, Alleyne Fitzherbert, Esquire, one of his said majesty's privy-council in Great-Britain and Ireland, and his ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to his catholic majesty; and, on the part of his catholic majesty, Don Joseph Monino, count of Florida Blanca, knight, grand cross of the royal Spanish order of Charles III. counsellor of state to his said majesty, and his principal secretary of state and of the dispatches; who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I. It is agreed that the buildings and tracts of land, situated on the northwest coast of the continent of North-America, or on islands adjacent to that continent, of which the subjects of his Britannic majesty were dispossessed about the month of April, 1789, by a Spanish officer, shall be restored to the said British subjects.

ART. II. And further, that a just reparation shall be made, according to the nature of the case, for all acts of violence or hostility, which may have been committed, subsequent to the month of April, 1789, by the subjects of either of the contracting parties against the subjects of the other—and that, in case any of the said respective subjects shall, since the same period, have been forcibly dispossessed of their lands, buildings, vessels, merchandise, or other property whatever, on the said continent, or on the seas or islands adjacent, they shall be re-established in the possession thereof, or a just compensation shall be made to them for the losses which they shall have sustained.

ART. III. And, in order to strengthen the bonds of friendship, and to preserve, in future, a perfect harmony and good understanding between the two contracting parties, it is agreed that their respective subjects shall not be disturbed or molested, either in navigating or carrying on their fisheries in the Pacific ocean, or in the South Seas, or in landing on the coasts of those seas, in places not already occupied, for the purpose of carrying on their commerce with the natives of the country, or of making settlements there: the whole subject nevertheless, to the restrictions and provisions specified in the three following articles.

ART. IV. His Britanic majesty engages to take the most effectual measures to prevent the navigation and fishery of his subjects, in the Pacific ocean, or in the South Seas, from being made a pretext for illicit trade with the Spanish settlements; and, with this view, it is moreover expresly stipulated, that British subjects shall not navigate, or carry on their fisheries in the said seas, within the space of ten sea leagues from any part of the coasts already occupied by Spain.

ART. V. It is agreed, that as well in the places which are to be restored to the British subjects, by virtue of the 1st article, as in all other parts of the north-western coasts of North-America, or of the islands adjacent, situated to the north of the parts of the said coast already occupied by Spain, wherever the subjects of either of the two powers shall have made settlements since the month of April, 1789, or shall hereafter make any, the subjects of the other shall have free access, and shall carry on their trade, without any disturbance or molestation.

ART. VI. It is further agreed, with respect to the eastern and western coasts of South-America, and to the islands adjacent, that no settlement shall be formed hereafter, by the respective subjects, in such parts of those coasts as are situated to the south of those parts of the same coasts, and of the islands adjacent, which are already occupied by Spain: Provided that the said respective subjects shall retain the liberty of landing on the coasts and islands so situated, for the purposes of their fishery, and of erecting thereon huts, and other temporary buildings, serving only for those purposes.

ART. VII. In all cases of complaint, or infraction of the articles of the convention, the officers of either party without permitting themselves previously to commit any violence or act of force, shall be bound to make an exact report of the affair, and of its circumstances, to their respective courts, who will terminate such differences in an amicable manner.

ART. VIII. The present convention shall be ratified and confirmed in the space of six weeks, to be computed from the day of its signature, or sooner, if it can be done.

In witness whereof, we, the undersigned plenipotentiaries of their Britannic and catholic majesties, have in their names, and in virtue of our respective full powers, signed the present convention, and set thereto the seals of our arms.

Done at the palace of St. Laurence, the twenty eighth of October, one thousand seven hundred and ninety.

WHEREAS the proviſion for the debts of the reſpective ſtates by the congreſs of the United States renders it eſſential to the intereſt of this ſtate, that its creditors ſhould ſubſcribe to the loan propoſed by congreſs, upon receiving a full compenſation from the ſtate for any injury which they might ſuſtain thereby,

Be it enacted, by the general aſſembly of Maryland, That it be propoſed to the creditors of this ſtate, to ſubſcribe to the loan propoſed by the congreſs of the United States, by an act of the ſaid congreſs, entitled, An act making proviſion for the debt of the United States, and the faith of this ſtate is hereby pledged to receive from the creditors, who ſhall ſubſcribe to the ſaid loan, all certificates bearing an intereſt of three per cent. and all certificates bearing an intereſt of ſix per cent. after the year eighteen hundred, which the ſaid creditors ſhall become entitled to by ſuch ſubſcription; and in exchange therefor, there ſhall be paid by the truſtee appointed by this act, to the ſaid reſpective creditors, a compenſation in ſtock, created under the act of congreſs aforeſaid, bearing an immediate intereſt of ſix per cent. to the full amount of the principal ſums mentioned in the ſaid certificates.

And, in order to eſtabliſh a fund for making the ſaid payment to the ſubſcribing creditors, Be it enacted, That Benjamin Harwood, of the city of Annapolis, be and he is hereby appointed a truſtee for the purpoſe of ſubſcribing to the loan propoſed by congreſs the continental paper now in the treaſury of this ſtate, and for other purpoſes herein after mentioned.

And be it enacted, That the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore be and he is hereby directed to deliver to the ſaid truſtee all the continental paper now in the treaſury, which may be ſubſcribed to the ſaid loan under the act of congreſs aforeſaid, taking his written declaration acknowledging the receipt of the ſaid paper as truſtee of the ſtate, and that the ſaid truſtee ſhall ſubſcribe the ſame in his own name, and ſhall deliver the certificates, which he ſhall receive therefor from the continental commiſſioner, to the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore.

And be it enacted, That when any creditor or creditors of this ſtate, who ſhall ſubſcribe to the ſaid loan, ſhall produce to the ſaid truſtee, any certificate granted by the ſaid commiſſioner, bearing an intereſt of three per cent. or any certificate granted by ſuch commiſſioner, bearing an intereſt of ſix per cent. after the year eighteen hundred, and ſhall aſſign and transfer the ſaid certificates to the ſaid truſtee in due form of law, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid truſtee, and he is hereby required to transfer to the ſaid creditor or creditors, in exchange therefor, ſo much of the ſtock herein before mentioned, bearing an immediate intereſt of ſix per cent. as ſhall amount to the principal ſums mentioned in ſuch certificates; and the ſaid truſtee ſhall deliver all certificates, transferred to him by any creditor or creditors as aforeſaid, to the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore for the uſe of this ſtate: Provided always, that the ſaid truſtee ſhall firſt be ſatisfied, that the certificates ſo produced by any creditor ſhall have been received from the ſaid commiſſioner on loans, ſubſcribed in certificates iſſued by this ſtate.

And be it enacted, That it ſhall be the duty of the truſtee, appointed or to be appointed in virtue of this act, to receive the intereſt which ſhall become due on the ſtock which he ſhall hold in truſt for the ſtate, and to pay the ſame to the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore.

And be it enacted, That in caſe the ſaid truſtee, or any other truſtee to be appointed in virtue of this act, ſhall refuſe to act, or die, or refuſe or neglect to give ſecurity as herein after required, the governor and council ſhall appoint another perſon in his ſtead.

And be it enacted, That every truſtee appointed, or to be appointed, in virtue of this act, ſhall, within thirty days after notice of his appointment, and before he proceeds to act, give bond to the ſtate, with good ſecurity to be approved of by the governor and council, in the ſum of five thouſand pounds current money, for the faithful performance of the truſt repoſed in him by this act, and the ſaid bond ſhall be recorded by the clerk of the general court for the weſtern ſhore, and a copy thereof, certified by the ſaid clerk, under his hand and ſeal of office, ſhall be received as evidence in any court of law or equity of this ſtate.

And, Whereas the taking out of circulation the certificates iſſued by this ſtate, will be injurious to the debtors of the ſtate, who were permitted to make payment in the ſaid certificates by the act, entitled, An act reſpecting the debtors and creditors of this ſtate, under the act to eſtabliſh funds to ſecure the payment of the ſtate debt within ſix years, and for the punctual payment of the annual intereſt thereon; Be it enacted, That all debtors who inſtalled, or might have inſtalled, under the act aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed to make payment of their debt as follows: that is to ſay, all arrears of intereſt to the firſt day of December, in the year ſeventeen hundred and ninety, and two thirds of the principal, in ſpecie, or in depreciation or other liquidated ſtate certificates, or in ſtock created under the act of congreſs herein before mentioned, bearing an immediate intereſt of ſix per cent. one third of the principal in ſpecie, or in ſtock created under the ſaid act of congreſs, and bearing an intereſt of ſix per cent. after the year eighteen hundred; and all intereſt accruing after the ſaid firſt day of December, in the year ſeventeen hundred and ninety, in ſpecie only.

And be it enacted, That the ſtock paid by the ſaid debtors ſhall be transferred by them to the truſtee appointed by, or to be appointed in virtue of, this act.

And be it enacted, That no execution ſhall iſſue againſt any debtor who inſtalled, or might have inſtalled under the ſaid act, before the firſt day of Auguſt next; and if executions have already iſſued, the attorney-general ſhall ſuſpend them, the defendants firſt paying all legal coſts.

And be it enacted, That the firſt payment due on the bonds of the debtors who have inſtalled, ſhall be poſtponed until the firſt day of Auguſt next.

And be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for all debtors, who had permiſſion to inſtall by the act aforeſaid, to inſtall at any time before the firſt day of Auguſt next, upon the ſame terms and principles as are preſcribed and eſtabliſhed by the act aforeſaid, except that the time of the firſt payment ſhall be on the ſaid firſt day of Auguſt next, and that the manner of making payment ſhall be as is herein before mentioned: and if any of the ſaid debtors who have not inſtalled, and who ſhall inſtall before the firſt day of Auguſt next, have paid any part of the principal of their debt ſince the firſt day of Auguſt laſt, the governor and council ſhall have regard to the ſaid payments, and in taking their bonds ſhall regulate the times of payment, ſo as to put them on the ſame footing as if they had inſtalled before the firſt day of Auguſt laſt.

And be it enacted, That where the ſecurity of any debtor has obtained an aſſignment of the bond of his principal, under the act aforeſaid, nothing in this act contained ſhall prevent the ſaid ſecurity, his executors, adminiſtrators, or aſſigns, from proceeding and recovering on the ſaid aſſigned bond, in the ſame manner as if this act had not been made; and if any ſecurity ſhall not be able to prevail on his principal to inſtall before the firſt day of Auguſt next, the ſaid ſecurity, or his heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators, may inſtall on the ſame terms that the principal might have done, and ſhall thereupon be entitled to an aſſignment of the original bond from the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore, who is hereby directed to make the ſame, and ſhall have the ſame proceedings thereon in his or her own name, for his or her own uſe, as the ſtate might have had.

And be it enacted, That all powers veſted in the governor and council by the act aforeſaid, ſhall be and are hereby continued until the end of the ſeſſion of aſſembly which ſhall be firſt held after the next general election of delegates for this ſtate.

And be it enacted, That the truſtee appointed, or to be appointed, in virtue of this act, ſhall have, as a compenſation for his ſervices for the preſent year, two hundred and fifty pounds current money, and for every ſubſequent year, if his ſervice ſhall be required, the ſum of ſeventy-five pounds current money.

And be it enacted, That the governor and council be requeſted to cauſe this act to be publiſhed, for the ſpace of ſix weeks, in the ſeveral news-papers of this ſtate, and to ſend one hundred printed copies thereof to each reſpective county, for the information of the people.

LOTTERY:

THE proprietor of which has for his object the disposal of a very valuable PLANTATION, containing 250 acres, or thereabouts, of choice land, beautifully and conveniently situated on the river Severn, within five miles of Annapolis, and eighteen of Baltimore-town, valued for the fertility of its soil, being adapted to every species of country produce.—— There is about one hundred acres of said land cleared, and under good fence, on which is a good dwelling-house, with some useful out offices, a good orchard in full bearing, and a fine stream of water running through the same. The remainder of said land abound with heavy hickory, black oak and walnut.

It must be obvious to every person, that this scheme holds out more advantages to adventurers than any yet offered to the public, as no sum is sunk, but the purchase of said plantation, which sum constitutes the capital prize.

The proprietor further assures the public, that the said plantation, together with the house and out offices, cost him one hundred and fifty pounds, and upwards, over and above the sum annexed to it in the scheme; and pledges himself to make a good and lawful title of said land to the fortunate adventurer as soon as the drawing of said lottery is over; the remainder of the prizes to be paid as soon as drawn. The title-deed to be seen by applying to
